Correct answer: B

If you pay attention to the CS catheter, then early activation of the atria on CS 1-2 with respect to CS 9-10 attracts attention. MAPD was installed in the left anterior region of the mitral valve, with tachycardia, the phenomenon of “fusion” takes place, with earlier activation relative to CS (red line).